THE BREVITY BASKET.
 Filled With Brief Mentions of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

Three Irish emigrants, a man and two girls, arrived at the Baltimore and Potomac depot yesterday morning. The man will go to Macon, Ga., and one girl will remain in the city and the other go to Richmond, Va.

Express train No. 2, of the Baltimore and Potomac railroad, due here at 7:20 a. m., was delayed fifteen minutes at Odontown yesterday morning by the breaking of an axle of the smoking car. No one was injured. The truck tore up the car floor to a slight extent.

Yesterday morning about 1 o'clock, a colored man known as "Whitey" Brooks, while passing along A street, between Third and Fourth streets southeast, was attacked by a half dozen colored roughs, who beat and kicked him till he was insensible and left him lying on the pavement.

Lieut. Col. Joseph C. Lee, now of Marshal McMichael's office, has resigned his commission as lieutenant colonel of the 6th regiment, New Jersey National Guard, after a service therein of fourteen years, much to the regret of the officers and men of the guard. The colonel is now a citizen of the district.

Herdie No. 1 collided with Lansburgh Brothers' delivery wagon, at the corner of Eleventh street and Pennsylvania avenue northwest, yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock.
 The delivery wagon lost a wheel, and was otherwise damaged. Careless driving on the part of the herdie man was the cause. Nobody was injured.

A horse and wagon belonging to Elphono Youngs was straying around the neighborhood of Tenth and O streets northwest last evening without a driver. They were found mixed up with the asphalt improvements now progressing on Tenth street between O and Q streets by Mr. Johnston, the druggist, and returned to their owner.

Prof. Sheldon has entirely overhauled the dancing academy, enlarged the hall, newly papered, painted, and frescoed the entire walls, handsomely wainscoted from the entrance door up, curtained the windows, and generally improved the place. He will open with a juvenile reunion at 11 a. m. and an adult reunion at 7:30 p. m. next Saturday.

During the month of August 36,000 foot passengers, 8,500 two-horse teams, 7,000 one-horse teams, 6,000 brick carts and 1,100 head of cattle passed over the long bridge to and from Virginia. This traffic was in excess of the traffic of the preceding month; but it is probable that the amount of the year will be less during September and get gradually less until the minimum of the winter months is reached; 218 sailing vessels and 214 tugs passed through the draw over the Washington channel, and fully three times as many through the draw over the Georgetown channel.

Information comes from Newport, R. I., that the wife of Mr. Cornelius Ryan, clerk to Capt. Scully there, has presented him with another son, his eighth child. "Con" was for many years an employe of the gas company in this city, and of the quartermaster's department, with which he is still connected.
 Like the electoral commission, he believes that eight beats seven, and of the same nationality as Bryan O'Lyinn has equal faith with that worthy in odd numbers, and doubtless will long contend with the noble-shouldered brother Bill, of the quartermaster general's office, for the numerous family championship.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the U. S. Electrical Lighting company was held yesterday, and action was taken with reference to increasing the capacity of the station so as to be enabled to meet the demand for light during the coming fall and winter season. Additional power and improved electrical machinery will be introduced. The board as now reorganized is as follows: James L. Barbour, president; Col.
 Robert Hoyt, vice president; William Dickson, secretary and treasurer; William L.
 Elkins, Stilson Hutchins, A. W. Fletcher, J.
 A. Ward, George I. McKelway, and A. M.
 Henshaw.

 Given.

OTTUMWA, IA.—Dr. J. N. Armstrong says:
 "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters in my family and recommend its use to others."

Marriage Licenses.
 Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Boetschmidt and Johanna Pogensee; French Johnson, of Pennsylvania, and Sarah Jackson, of Virginia; Leopold Frederick Moore, of Portiers Vienna, France, and Georgia D.

 Johnson, of this city; George C. May, of this city, and Adda Hammon, of Shepherds-town, Md.; William H. Butler and Mary Isabel Middleton; Simon Jones and Carrie

The Grangers.
 Mr. H. O. Devries, master Patrons of Hundandy of Maryland, says: I tried the wonderful remedy, St. Jacobs Oil, on a mare of mine, badly crippled, and a few applications restored her to soundness. I was attacked myself with rheumatism so severe it was agony itself. Three applications of the great pain cure completely cured me.

Thanks to the Rev. Mr. Mulligan.
 The Rev. John A. Mulligan, whose sermon upon the dying prayer of the late Judge Jeremiah Black was published in THE RE-PUBLICAN, has received a letter from Mr.
 Chamoney E. Black, the son of the deceased jurist, in which he thanks Mr. Mulligan in behalf of his mother for his kind attention, and says: "Your sermon on the death and Christian character of Judge Black touched her and all her children most deeply. And all the evidences of public approbation nothing has been more gratifying than this."

A Relic of the Assassination.
 A large number of persons visit the office of Capt. Cobough, of the treasury watch, every day to see the silk flag which tripped the assassin Booth after he had assassinated President Lincoln. Booth's spur caught in the flag, and the torn piece is exposed by the arrangement of the flag, which hangs gracefully on the wall in the captain's office.
